

Demographics

Source: U.S. Census Bureau; 2018 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates
Date: July 2020

How We Compare

The identification of population and demographic characteristics will help to provide a better understanding of the cities that are being served. It is important that the current demographic, social and economic patterns which may assist or with planning and implementation of different community programs.

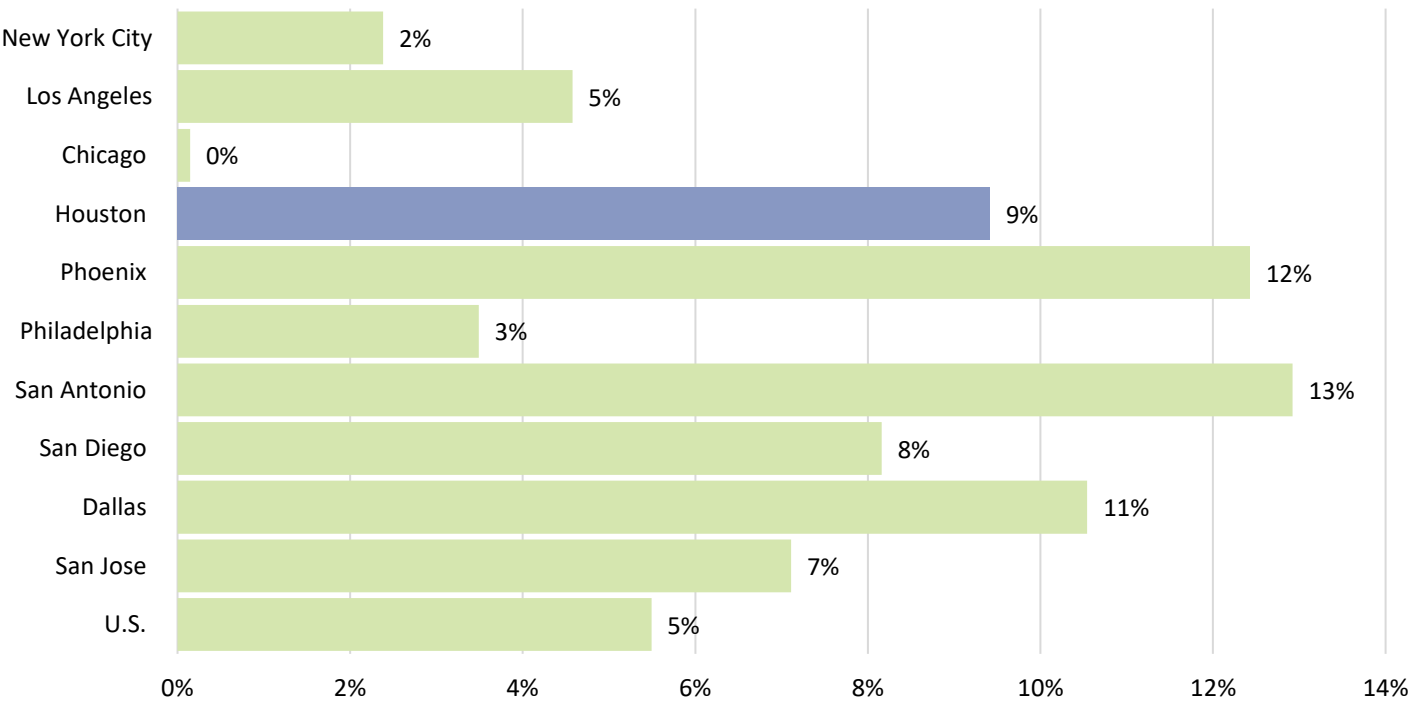

Of the ten most populous cities in the U.S, Houston ranks fourth after New York, Los Angeles and Chicago. Houston experienced a 9% increase in population between 2010 and 2018. The profiles of demographic characteristics include population, race/ethnicity, age ranges, median age etc.

Total Population

Population Change 2010-2018

Race / Ethnicity

Note: People of Hispanic origin may be of any race. “Asian” includes American Indian, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islanders categories. “Other” includes two or more races category.

School Age Population 5 to 17 years old

Note: School going population

Voting Age Population 18 Years and Over

The Millennial Generation Ages: 18 to 34 years

Note: Millennial generation – Young Adults

The Middle Age 35 to 64 years

The Retirement Age 65 Years and Over

Note: Senior Citizen population

Median Age

Note: This measure divides the age distribution into two equal parts: one-half falling below and the other half above the median.

City of Houston, Infographic

PLANNING &
DEVELOPMENT
DEPARTMENT

Demographics

Source: U.S. Census Bureau; 2016 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates
Date: July 2020